Full Time Toddler Room Lead Teacher

Description: Responsibilities include formulating and implementing curriculum to meet the core competency needs of toddlers according to Highscope standards. Manage multiple areas of the classroom, including supervision over assistants, daily schedules, parent communication, assess and teach children, conduct parent teacher conferences, develop and execute parent classes 2 times per year, and ensure that classes remain safe and conducive to learning, all in accordance to the State of Michigan childcare licensing rules and regulations, and NAEYC standards. Must have a wealth of patience for toddlers, a basic knowledge of toddler growth and development, be able to multi- task in a chaotic environment and have fierce potty-training skills.

Experience and Education: Must be in accordance to State of Michigan requirements for Lead Teachers. A degree in Early Childhood Education or Child Development, or CDA is preferred not required.

Schedule: Hours will vary by day

Pay: Hourly pay will be determined by education and experience. Typically, this position will pay $12-$15/hour

Continued Education: a minimum of 20 hours annually of continued education will be required for this position.

Full Time Infant Room Lead Teacher

Description: Responsibilities include formulating and implementing curriculum to meet the core competency needs of infants according to Highscope standards. Manage multiple areas of the classroom, including supervision over assistants, daily schedules, parent communication, inventory of food/diapers/wipes/etc., assess infants using a realm of assessment and developmental tools, conduct parent teacher conferences, and ensure that classes remain safe and conducive to learning, all in accordance to the State of Michigan childcare licensing rules and regulations and NAEYC standards. Must a have soft, loving personality, a basic knowledge of infant growth and development, strong communication and organizational skills as well as patience and leadership skills.

Experience and Education: Must be in accordance to State of Michigan requirements for Lead Teachers. A degree in Early Childhood Education or Child Development, or CDA is preferred not required.

Schedule: Hours will vary by day

Pay: Hourly pay will be determined by education and experience. Typically, this position will pay $12-$15/hour

Continued Education: a minimum of 20 hours annually of continued education will be required for this position.

Full Time School- Age Lead Teacher and Float

Description: Responsibilities include formulating and implementing curriculum to meet the core competency needs of various aged children. Must be highly engaged and willing to create concrete relationships with all the children in the classroom. Must be a great role model and have immense energy and ambition for shaping children's lives. Must be cognizant of self-image and be able to seek out children's individual talents and characteristics and use these to take them to the next level, showing them a purpose in the community and instilling a drive to work harder, achieve more and love life in all children in the classroom. Manage multiple areas of the classroom including children's schedules, homework time, parent communication, Supervision of a large group of children, ensuring that classes remain safe and conducive to learning, all in accordance to the State of Michigan childcare licensing rules and regulations and NAEYC standards. Must be able to keep the classroom in order while allowing children to thrive. Transporting to and from Island City Academy may be necessary.

Experience and Education: Must be in accordance to State of Michigan requirements for Lead Teachers of School age Children. Must be willing to obtain a chauffeur license and have an impeccable driving record.

Schedule: This position has various hours and schedules

Pay: will be determined by education and experience. Typically, this position will pay $10-$12/ hour

Continued Education: a minimum of 20 hours annually of continued education will be required for this position.